

Arrangements for Dangerous Substances and Explosive Atmospheres

Risks associated with dangerous substances and explosive atmospheres must be eliminated or reduced so far as is reasonably practicable. Contractors are made aware of how to identify explosive atmosphere zones on client sites. Procedures are in place to protect the health of employees from an accidental release of a dangerous substance at the workplace. Where a dangerous substance is present at the workplace, employees are provided with suitable and sufficient information, instruction and training.

January 2026

Health & Safety Arrangements